The Fisher/Nightingale Houses, Inc. (FNHI) is a 501(c)3 non-profit that supports the guests and operations of the three Greater Dayton-area Fisher Houses. The houses are compassionate care facilities that offer active military, Veterans, and their families housing at no cost during times of medical treatment. Some come for a day, some for a year, some return often for treatment for ongoing issues such as cancer care. The houses are fully stocked with everything that is needed, so the patients and families can focus on one thing, which is healing. We pride ourselves on being a “home away from home” that is tranquil. Community is also often built between the families in the houses as they can relate to others facing similar challenges, and life-long bonds have been forged as a result.

A gift to FNHI directly benefits the guests of our houses. We are proud of our 4-star rating with Charity Navigator, which is an organization that monitors and rates non-profits and their stewardship of donations. FNHI has earned and enjoys the top rating year over year.

There are many ways to support the Fisher/Nightingale Houses, Inc. We have volunteers that engage in many ways, from helping with fundraising events to operating our popcorn machine in the lobby of the Wright-Patterson AFB Medical Center. Monetary donations can be mailed to PO Box 33871, Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio 45433; or donated on-line at www.fnhi.org; or presenting a check in-person. We love to give tours of our houses, so if you want to schedule a tour, simply contact Executive Director, Dr. Kimberly Luse at KLuse@fnhi.org, or 513-544-9408. Throughout the year, many local organizations also raise funds for FNHI through events such as golf outings, so you can get engaged there!

Save the Date! Our gala “Compassionate Care Heals” will be held on Saturday, May 18th, 6pm at Sinclair Conference Center. We will enjoy an engaging program, wonderful food, and fellowship as well as a silent and live auction. Dan Edwards will be the Master of Ceremonies and Doug Sorrell will serve as the auctioneer. There is more information on the website. Registration will open after the New Year.

Please consider getting engaged with Fisher/Nightingale Houses, Inc. We serve those who have served us all.

Best of luck with your upcoming surgery. Have a blessed holiday season. Kimberly
